

Quiz

Most people when they go online are doing so to look for information. Whether it be how many pounds are in a dollar, what time is the last train to Stockport or how do you ask where the toilet is in Spanish, being able to accurately search the internet for information and know that the answer you've found is accurate, is becoming more and more important.

1	Lee Harvey Oswald, the man who assassinated JFK, was shot dead in a Dallas police station on what date in November 1963?
2	Animal activists bombed where on the 30 th November 1982?
3	How many people died in the Canadian air disaster that happened on the 29 th November 1963?
4	The army deposed that hated President of which country on the 25 th November 1973?
5	Who became the first to hold their position since the 1930's to pay tax?
6	Bill Clinton became the 1 st US President to visit where on the 30 th November 1995?
7	An armed gang carried out Britain's largest ever robbery on the 26 th November 1983. What was the value of the gold stolen?
8	A report was released following the Brixton race riots in November of what year?
9	The co-founder of the Guinness Book of Records was shot outside his home on the 27 th November 1975. What was his name?
10	Who was killed in an air crash on the 29 th November 1975?
11	Norway voted 'No' for the second time in a European referendum in 1994. What was the date of the second referendum?
12	People panicked as what rationing loomed on the 29 th November 1956?
13	Freddie Mercury died on the 24 th November 1991, one day after telling the world he was HIV positive. How old was he when he died?

14	Who was chosen as leader of the Conservative Party and therefore as Prime Minister, on the 27 th November 1990?
15	In an attempt to prevent the spread of foot and mouth disease, what was suspended indefinitely in November 1967?
Bonus Question
16	Over 1,000 people were forced to abandon the Achille Lauro after it caught fire in the Indian Ocean. This happened on the 30 th November 1994. What day of the week was this?	