

Answers

1. Lee Harvey Oswald was shot on the 24th November 1963.
2. Downing Street was bombed by animal activists, injuring 1 staff member.
3. 118 people died in the Canadian air disaster.
4. It was Greece that saw the Army overthrow it's hated president.

5. Elizabeth II became the first monarch since the 1930's to pay tax.
6. Bill Clinton became the first US President to visit Northern Ireland.
7. The value of the gold was £25m. This gold would be valued at just under £84 million in 2019!
8. The Brixton race riots took place in 1981.

9. Ross McWhirter was shot outside his house.
10. Graham Hill, the famous race car driver.
11. Norway said No for a second time on the 29th November 1994.
12. Petrol/Fuel rationing was being brought in.

13. Freddie Mercury was aged only 45 when he died.
14. John Major was chosen by the Conservative Party.
15. Horse racing was suspended indefinitely.
16. It was a Wednesday.

17. The House of Lords announced the first Women's Life Peerage's.